

At the Queen's Head Tavern in Pater-Noster-Row,
on Thursday the Nineteenth Day of March, 1718,
exactly at Three a-Clock in the Afternoon;

The following COPIES, and Parts of COPIES, of the late Mr. JOHN NICHOLSON, Bookseller, deceas'd, will be Dispos'd of by AUCTION
to the Highest Bidder.

In NINETY LOTS.

N. B. Those who Purchase them, to pay in ready Money; or give such Security for the Payment of the Money at Three Months after the Sale, as the Executors of the said Mr. NICHOLSON shall approve of.

N. B. Those marked with a * are Printing now, or going to the Press; and whatever Expences there are on those Books, while they have been Printing, or Preparing for the Press, must be paid by the Purchasers over and above the Price of the Copy.

N. B. The several Parts and Shares of COPIES throughout the whole, according to the best Information can be got, are True and Exact. However, every one is at Liberty before the Sale, to satisfy themselves of any of those Shares; the Executors undertaking to Sell no more nor no other Title, than what Mr. NICHOLSON had when he died, which are supposed and believed to be the same as mentioned in the following List.

N. B. And to prevent any Disputes about the Conveying of the Titles to these Copies, and Part of Copies, the Executors will exhibit, at the Place of Sale, the Draught or Form of a Writing they will execute to every Purchaser, upon the Payment of the Money; and will execute no other Conveyance of any of the Copies, or Shares of Copies.
